

CENTENNIAL INDIVIDUAL RESEARCH SCHOLARS PROGRAM

NAME _____

DEPARTMENT _____

Please respond specifically to each of the following items in order. The Professional Growth Committee will evaluate proposals based on responses to each of the criteria.

- Please provide a title and description of the research project.
- How does the proposed project utilize the methodologies and/or skills appropriate to the discipline in the exploration of current social or value problems, issues of institutional significance, and/or questions of importance in the discipline?
- In what way is there a relationship between the project on the one hand and classroom activity and/or the goals of the liberal arts on the other?
- Include a detailed budget, if you are requesting project materials.

It is understood that selection as a Centennial Individual Research Scholar commits the recipient to:

1. Prepare a report for publication in Teaching and Research at Concordia College or exhibit for public view, due by the end of the first semester following the grant period.
2. Complete two-months' full-time work on the project during the summer. No summer school teaching or other responsibilities (e.g., workshops, seminars) should be undertaken during these two months.
