

While not an English major, the new multimedia journalism major draws many of its courses from English. An added bonus with this new major is the fact that it can be taken as a second major with an English major.

THE MULTIMEDIA JOURNALISM MAJOR (Catalog 11-12)

Multimedia Journalism Major Checklist of Requirements (36 credits required)

1. Each of these: (16 credits)

- ENG 317: Telling the Story: News Writing
 - ENG 318: Telling the Story: Feature Writing
 - ENG 403: Investigating and Narrating the News
 - ENG/COM 422: Mass Communication Law and Ethics
-

2. Eight credits from these:

- COM 315: Interviewing (4 credits)
 - COM 332: Media Production 1: Video (4 credits)
 - COM 333: Media Production 2: Audio (2 credits)
 - COM 334: Broadcast Performance (2 credits)
 - COM 431: Broadcast News Writing and Reporting (4 credits)
 - COM 432: Electronic News Gathering (4 credits)
-

3. One course (4 credits) from these: (4 credits each)

- COM 139R: Appreciating Film
 - COM 325: New Media
 - COM 326G: Global Cinema
 - COM 382: Analyzing Film
 - COM 493Z: Documentary and Historical Film
-

4. Two courses (8 credits) from these: (4 credits each)

- ART/COM 368: Digital Photography
 - ART 370: Graphic Design
 - ART/COM/ENG 390: Cooperative Education
 - COM 314: Group Communication
 - COM 403: Public Relations
 - COM 413: Advertising
 - COM 414: Organizational Communication
 - ENG 227R: Foundations of Creative Writing
 - ENG 316: Business Writing
 - ENG 324: Technical Writing
 - ENG 371: Editing and Grammar for the Professional
 - ENG 377: Nonfiction Writing Seminar
-

Students are strongly encouraged to participate in the cocurricular activities in the three departments, including The Concordian, Concordia On-Air, KORD radio and Public Relations Club.
