

Concordia College Theatre Performance and Production Scholarship Application

If this application does not lend itself well to your qualifications, create your own application. However, please include all requested information. Note: All materials, including two confidential recommendations, must be returned promptly in one mailing envelope. After you have completed the application process, you should immediately begin preparing your audition piece. For performers, your audition should consist of 8 minutes of two contrasting pieces and may include song or dance. Production auditions should present an organized example(s) of work, including photos, written work, sample programs, video clips, or drawings, within 8 minutes. A Powerpoint presentation is very acceptable – load it onto a flash drive or burn to a DVD.

Recommendations

Secure two recommendations from teachers or theatre artists familiar with your work. Letters of recommendation should speak about your past theatre involvement or achievement as well as potential for further growth and achievement at Concordia. Upon completion, recommendation letters should be returned to you in sealed, confidential envelopes and sent to Concordia with your other scholarship application materials.

Theatre Performance and Production Résumé

Submit a résumé of onstage and backstage theatre involvement and other fine and performing-arts related activities. (You may include music, martial arts, etc.)

Essay

Complete an essay answering the questions: "How do the fine and performing arts contribute to the world in which we live? How do the talents and skills of theatre prepare you for a meaningful life?" Your essay should be a minimum of one and a maximum of three double-spaced pages.
