

Frequently Asked Questions by Potential Committee Members

Q: I have a conflict and cannot attend the leadership weekend in August. Does that mean they can't serve on the committee?

A: While we would love to have every reunion giving volunteer present, we know that it won't be possible for everyone to attend. They can still serve on the committee!

Q: I don't have Internet access. How will I complete the "draft"?

A: The C-400 Annual Giving staff can provide them with a paper copy of the class list and assist them with the draft process by phone.

Q: When would I need to make the calls?

A: Calls will be made beginning in early October. All calls must be complete by November 15.

Q: How do I get the phone numbers for the classmates I am to call?

A: The C-400 Annual Giving staff will provide all of the necessary information for you to complete the calls.

Q: Some of my calls will be long distance calls. How does that work?

A: The C-400 Annual Giving staff will provide prepaid calling cards upon request. Many volunteers have cell phones and choose to use their evening and weekend minutes to make the calls.

Q: How much time is involved in this effort?

A: It's a small number of hours spread over a long period of time. Per the Reunion Giving Committee Member role description, all committee members are invited to attend the leadership weekend on campus, August 17-18. All committee members are expected to attend 1-2 committee conference calls. On average, volunteers spend about 5 hours making their calls and a small amount of time sending a thank you note (mail or e-mail) to those who make a gift.

Q: What is involved with the Leadership Weekend in August?

A: This is a chance to reconnect with Concordia and fellow committee members. We will hear from the president and other college leaders and have a chance to see, first hand, the changes on campus since we attended Concordia. Past attendees describe it as: An excellent opportunity, empowering, enlightening, friendly, energizing, fun, educational, informative and inspiring.

Q: When is our reunion?

A: October 10-12, 2008
