

What is like to be a part of the reunion giving effort? Past volunteers shared the following about their experience:

“Everyone should give it a try.” Volunteer, Class of ‘57

“It was so nice to get back to the Concordia roots and really feel like an active Cobber alumni.”
Volunteer, Class of ‘03

“Do it - when it's your turn!” Volunteer, Class of ‘58

“Completely enjoyed catching up with former classmates. Some were those I still speak to, but many were ones that I had lost touch with.” Volunteer, Class of ‘97

“Positive. Exhilarating” Volunteer, Class of ‘82

“Wonderful, exciting and rewarding.” “Try it, you will like it!” Volunteer, Class of ‘62

“...more fun than expected.” Volunteer, Class of ‘82

“It was fun to connect with classmates and I learned some new fund-raising tactics.” “One impact is that it will get me to the next reunion, which it is normally difficult to find the time to do.” “Thanks to Concordia for the chance to serve in this way. It was a pleasure.” Volunteer, Class of ‘87

“I had a delightful time visiting with those I reached, sometimes talking with individuals more than thirty minutes.” Volunteer, Class of ‘62

“A delightful connection with former classmates who share a love for Concordia also” Volunteer, Class of ‘68

“Definitely a great opportunity. Would encourage them to take part if asked.” Volunteer, Class of ‘57

“Felt good about helping Concordia. Also felt privileged to have been asked this time.”
Volunteer, Class of ‘62

“Forty years melts away quickly as we reminisce” Volunteer, Class of ‘68

“In a word Fun” Volunteer, Class of ‘62

“It was great reconnecting with Concordia and being a part of the reunion effort.” Volunteer, Class of ‘92

“It was fun and enjoyable.” Volunteer, Class of ‘63

“This was a delightful experience, as I mentioned upon returning the papers. Everyone was interested in Concordia, appreciated the contact, chatted about themselves and definitely considered the reunion giving although some would be unable to attend. The anticipation was more nerve-wracking than the actuality of calling.” Volunteer, Class of ‘57

“Very enjoyable. Great to reconnect. Several who hadn't really even considered coming to Homecoming were willing to rethink and possibly come. I think the personal contact from a classmate (much as the student calls are great) is an important factor.” Volunteer, Class of ‘68

“It was a lot of fun to reconnect with old friends who I maybe hadn't talked to in a while.”
Volunteer, Class of ‘03

“Catching up with people with whom I haven't interacted in years and years was the big plus.”
Volunteer, Class of ‘58
