Topic and Speaker Background

What does respecting diversity mean within an organization? How do you develop policies and procedures that respect human rights? What is the role of the leader in developing human rights?

Dave Pinder, plant manager of Cardinal IG, is a unique leader and dynamic speaker. He will discuss his philosophy of leadership, values and diversity. Dave is a former leadership instructor at West Point.

Cardinal IG is a company that manufactures insulated glass for residential and commercial windows. They employ a significant number of new Americans (over 50% of their workforce). Respect for human rights within the organization is not only important but also necessary. Cardinal IG has an outstanding workforce and a waiting list of people interested in working for their organization.

Center for Ethical Leadership

The purpose of the Center for Ethical Leadership is to develop and enhance ethics-centered and values-based leadership for individuals and organizations through information programs and consultation.

Quality of leadership is a primary factor in the success or failure of any organization. Those in positions of leadership have a direct influence on the level of commitment, motivation and performance of their organization. They are continually in situations where their judgements and decisions impact others. Managers at all levels can improve their effectiveness in any organization by continually learning new leadership skills and practices.
